Hague, December 19, N. S.

THIS Day at Ten in the Forenoon, her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Orange was delivered, after a long and dangerous Labour, of a Princeſs, who died in the Birth. Her Royal Highneſs is as well as can be expected in her Condition.

Helvoetſluys, Dec. 21, N. S. The King left Hanover about Ten of the Clock on Tueſday Night the 18th Inſtant, and got to Bentheim on Wedneſday about Nine at Night, and on Thurſday Evening about Ten arrived at Utrecht; from whence his Majeſty ſet out this Morning, and came to this Place a little after Seven in the Evening, where he continues in perfect Health.

Helvoetſluys, Dec. 22, N. S. By Letters arrived this Morning from the Hague, we have had the Pleaſure of hearing that her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Orange continued in a fair Way of doing well.

Hague, Dec. 21, N. S. His Excellency Mr. Walpole ſet out from hence this Morning to go to Helvoetſluys, as did likewiſe Yeſterday my Lord De la War and Baron Hattorff. In the preſent Situation of Domeſtick Affairs here, there is a Plan prepared in the College of Nobles, to be laid before the States of Holland at their next Meeting, relating to the publick Places to be filled up, viz. M. Obdam to be made Preſident of the Committeerde Raede, and Keeper of the Seals; Brigadier Waſſenaer, the preſent Colonel of the Guards and Governour of Willemſtad, leaving the Military Service, to be made Bailiff of the Hague, and one of the Directors of the Eaſt India Company; M. Vander Duyn deſiſting from his Pretenſion to that Bailiwick, to have inſtead thereof the Regiment of Foot Guards for his Brother the Brigadier Vander Duyn, and a Place of Heemraad of Rhineland for his Son, continuing himſelf in the Council of State; M. Hompeſch to have the Government of Willemſtad; and M. Benting to be made Deputy to the States General. It is uncertain whether the States of Holland will approve of this Plan. As for their Penſionary, very probably M. Vander Heim will be the Succeſſor of M. Slingelandt, the Town of Amſterdam declaring for him; in which Caſe, 'tis ſaid M. Ten Hove will be made Treaſurer General in the Room of M. Vander Heim; and young M. Fagel Secretary to the Council of State, in the Room of M. Ten Hove.

Whitehall, October 26, 1736.
